When it matters: Axcom.

The demands placed on medical equipment in hospitals and clinics are constantly increasing. Equipment must be reliable all around the clock. As a leading manufacturer of rechargeable batteries and supplier of medical accessories, Axcom makes an important contribution to the effective care of patients worldwide.

Certified quality without any compromises.

Reliability, endurance and longevity are Axcom's top priorities. This is why development, production and final inspection all take place in our own workshop, with quality double-checked in both production and shipping. Even the manufacturers' original batteries as well as the strictly selected accessories are carefully checked before they are delivered. All products are certified and comply 100% with the German medical products act, MPG.

- Top quality thanks to high-quality Japanese quality cells and thoroughly tested components
- Personal support by trained medical product consultants
- 100% compliance with the German medical products act, MPG
- Our own certified products and originals
- 12 month warranty for batteries in use
- Quick delivery within 24 hours
- Technical support provided by qualified team
- Immediate availability of high-demand articles through stock levels maintained by Axcom
- Significant price advantage
- Quality double-checked in both production and shipping
- Our own production, technology and quality management complying with ISO9001:2015
- Advanced technology developed in cooperation with our customers
- Tailor-made products to meet your needs

Axcom brand quality

Great responsibility requires top quality: Axcom's batteries are world leaders in terms of their construction, selected materials and workmanship.

We use only brand-name components to construct our batteries – from the cells to the gold-plated contacts. Our certified suppliers have been carefully selected. Every Axcom product is subject to stringent quality controls in our in-house testing laboratory. The company is also certified according to ISO 9001:2015.

Individual development

Axcom batteries and communication accessories are designed to your exact requirements.

Our engineers work with you from the specifications, modify standard applications and optimise products to your needs. Through our global network with leading developers and producers, Axcom products are technologically always state-of-the-art.

We bring your product
to life

More flexibility

Just tell us what you need - we will do it for you.

We produce small or large series, standard or special products, and supply from our automated central warehouse for just-in-time to Germany or to the global offices of your company.

Advice and service

You benefit from individual project support in the team of Axcom specialists.

We advise you competently and see ourselves as your solution partner for secure and reliable mobile energy carriers and charging technology in almost every field of application. That's why we have worked together with our customers for years on a full confidence basis.

What Axcom offers:

Cell replacement: Fresh cell culture for your batteries

We can swap used-up cells for new, high-quality industrial cells. The casing and securing elements are retained. You get an absolutely new-quality battery with a 12-month guarantee on the fitted cells.

The benefits at a glance:

- :: 100% performance and up to 60% cost savings compared with original batteries
- :: We only use quality cells and we apply comprehensive quality checks
- :: Certified to ISO 9001:2008
- :: It's easy to do: Send in your original battery and we take care of the rest.
- :: Avoid waste and protect resources
